

David Kerr

David Kerr, of Annapolis, Maryland, passed away Thursday, February 11, at the age of 72. He is survived by his wife, Carol, his children Donald and Timothy Kerr, Rebekah Starner, and Kathy Thompson, and stepchildren, Dev Pathik and Anita Pathik Law, as well as 15 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

David was a carpentry contractor by trade and specialized in remodeling kitchens. He was a member and active volunteer at Riva Trace Baptist Church, and a frequent volunteer for Unity by the Bay and the Maritime Archaeological Historical Society. He maintained a garden on the B&A Trail and volunteered annually to lead a team for Serve Annapolis. Each June since 2007, he built houses in Mexico with Club Dust, an organization that builds simple homes for needy families. He continued his legacy of giving by gifting his organs to others. It is a source of comfort to David's family to know that David has given the possibility of longer and better lives to others.

Friends and family will gather at Riva Trace Baptist Church, 475 Central Avenue, Davidsonville, Maryland, on Thursday, February 25. The family will welcome guests beginning at 10:00 AM, with a formal service beginning at 11:00 AM. Following a private internment, the family invites all friends to join them at 4:00 PM at Unity by the Bay, 4 Pointless Forest Trail, Annapolis, Maryland, for a reception and sharing circle to celebrate David's life.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Club Dust at <http://www.clubdust.org/contact-us.html> .
